

JULY 2020 | VOL. 10

ELEMENTS OF ARROGANCE & PRIDE

Lesson Ten Week Ten

BY TORRIE SLAUGHTER

Dear Person of Purpose, Yesterday I asked you to take inventory of all the items you automatically pay for, the apps you use or other monthly charges, and add them up. As you do, ask yourself if you're using them to their full potential. See where a family member could better use that money, or whomever God reveals to you. Some of the luxuries we pay for and do not use would help another person by leaps and bounds if only they had the opportunity. Today clarify where your money goes. Put others first think about who they come in contact with and cultivate another section of God's garden. Think about how your words affect others. While the truth is real, we can filter it through our biases and prejudices. Think before you speak. A healthy degree of self-confidence is good. You were made in the image of God, and with Him, all things are possible. Pray fervently for direction to bring balance and order to your life. I read an article recently, and the author summarized the attributes of a selfless leader. He wrote "A selfless person goes beyond his concerns and empathizes with others. They are humble, have a broader view, genuinely listen to others, put themselves in others' positions, say "we" instead of "I", and celebrate success together and face the failure alone. They find pleasure in helping others to see happiness in their face."

I noticed the more I looked to the needs of others; I began to transform my thinking.

This Week's Scriptures:

1 Timothy 6:3-10, Matthew 6:24, 1 John 3:17, Proverbs 13:11, Psalm 37:21, 2 Timothy 3:1-9

Weaponized Arrogance

ASK YOURSELF:

What do I need help clarifying?

What artillery am I using to get the things you want?

Am I a source of encouragement and hold an advisory position within your circle?

2 Corinthians 12:20 For I am afraid that when I come I won't like what I find, and you won't like my response. I am afraid that I will find quarreling, jealousy, anger, selfishness, slander, gossip, arrogance, and disorderly behavior.