PROFILE

Torrie Slaughter is a purpose-driven believer in Christ, business owner, life coach, wife, and mother. As the founder of Our Given Purpose®, Torrie seeks to help married women over 25 launch their vision. She is removing the blinders that anger, arrogance, pride, and fear cast. We will C.O.P. our given purpose! Her passion is to create synergy within the body of Christ by jumping over the barriers with less strain, frustration, and anxiety. As a woman of faith, Torrie recognized the ultimate authority in her life did not have her undivided attention. As a theology student, God showed her how to read and apply His Holy Word. Through her many personal, spiritual, and professional struggles, she hopes to influence others to fear God above humankind. God drew out the purpose for which she is created.

Torrie's focus on helping others clarify, organize, and plan with our Lord means we connect the dots between the should and could.
